

Light Pollution Solutions Communities Can Use – an AAS Workshop

January 3, 2017, 1-5pm, Mustang 6 room

- 1:00pm Introduction (Connie Walker & Pat Seitzer)
Our Focus and Goals
Introductions to Speakers and Agenda
- 1:15pm Panel of Observatory Directors & Reps
Light pollution issues the observatory faced (7 minutes each)
Lori Allen (KPNO), Jeff Hall (Lowell), Chris Smith (AURA-O), Dan McKenna (Palomar)
- 1:45p Panel of Observatory Directors and Reps
Light pollution solutions (7 minutes each)
Lori Allen (KPNO), Jeff Hall (Lowell), Chris Smith (AURA-O), Dan McKenna (Palomar)
- 2:30pm Questions for and Answers from Panelists
- 2:45pm Break
- 3:00pm Panel of technical experts
Light pollution solutions (7 minutes each)
Chris Monrad (Monrad Engineering); John Barentine (International Dark-Sky Association); Oil & Gas Rep ( ); Dan McKenna (Palomar)
- 3:30pm Questions for and Answers from Panelists
- 3:45pm Discussion with All Panelists:
How do you motivate communities to adopt solutions?
How do you approach town councils with these issues & solutions?
How should one get companies to be part of the solution?
How do you go about implementing solutions? (e.g., considerations)
What future technologies should we be considering?
- 4:15/4:30pm General discussion: what can we as an organization do to move forward?
- 4:45pm Wrap up: a word from Patrick Seitzer (AAS Light Pollution, RFI & Space Debris Committee Chair)
- 5:00pm Adjourn